

FLRACEP ALL-HANDS MEETING PRELIMINARY AGENDA – Oct 2016

LOCATION: Tradewinds Resort, St. Pete Beach, FL

PURPOSE: RFP I CE progress report for year 1 activities, RFP II CE kick-off, Q&A with PMT, promote collaborations, address concerns

AGENDA:

Oct 26: arrivals

Oct 27:

7:30a: Breakfast provided

8:30: Dr. Phil Kramer, FIO Director: Welcome, introductions

9:00: Libby Fetherston-Resch, FLRACEP Director: FLRACEP mission, vision, overview of how 2015-2017 and 2016-2018 Centers of Excellence Grantees fit into this vision

9:30: RFP I CE grant overviews (20 mins followed by 10 min Q/A); Science, technology innovations, novel insights to date, challenges, and anticipated broader impacts

- Examining Fisheries Impact of Invasive Lionfish
- Biological & Economic Indicators for Assessing Recreational Fisheries

10:30: Break

- Demonstration of Fisheries Assessment Applications for Underwater Gliders
- Improving the Use of Products Derived From Monitoring Data in Ecosystem Models in the Gulf of Mexico
- Informing Fishery-Independent Reef Fish Surveys Through Advanced Survey Techniques

12:30p: Lunch and review of student posters

1:30: CE grant overviews (cont.)

- Evaluating Fish Production and Ecosystem Impacts of Artificial Reefs
- Monitoring Oil Spill Effects and Recovery in Large Deep-Sea Fishes
- Egg and Larval DNA Barcoding to Support Gulf Reef-Fish Stock Assessments
- Ontogenetic Shifts in Sea Turtle Habitat
- Habitat Mapping to Inform Future Survey Efficiencies, Management Strategies and Climate Change Research

3:30: Break

4:00: RFP II CE grant overview, science and innovation, expected outcomes, long-term monitoring application (20 min followed by 10 min Q&A)

4:30: Additional Program Management Team Q/A with CEs

5:00: E. Fetherston-Resch – FLRACEP requirement round-up: COI, Environmental Checklist, Data Management Plan

5:30p: Adjourn [PMT homework: Review recommended program document edits (bylaws, rules and policies, etc. will be passed out), provide revisions]

6:00-7:30p: Reception and best student poster award

Oct 28:

7:00a: Breakfast

9:00: E. Fetherston-Resch – update on Gulf-wide coordination activities, opportunities for FLRACEP CE collaboration and coordination; options for amplifying/exporting/ transmitting FLRACEP results, methods, lessons learned, etc. to broader community (AFS Tampa session? GOMOSEs session? Glossy FIO magazine?)

10:30: Break

11:00: CE expectations for year 2 – results, publications, etc.

(Grantees adjourn – box lunches provided)

Noon: Working PMT Lunch – Coastal and Ocean Monitoring in Florida: Evaluating the Landscape (potential COOS-related guest speaker/staff presentation)

1:30p: PMT Closed meeting

5:00p Meeting adjourned